

O Navio Negreiro, The Slave Ship

A Public, Trilingual Poetry Reading followed by a post-reading activity and discussion

Brazil had the longest lasting slave economy in the Americas, importing an estimated 10x as many enslaved Africans as the U.S.

In a belated recognition of Black History Month we will acknowledge the monumental importance of these four million enslaved people with a trilingual reading of the Castro Alves poem O Navio Negreiro (The Slave Ship).

Friday, March 1

10:00-10:50am

Jones Hall Patio

PORTulane

