A NOTE FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

Our 58th season is upon us! We have a great line-up of shows, which you can read about below. We have held auditions and are very close to finalizing our cast lists. There are some exciting housekeeping items I'd like to impart. Subscribers, you can now renew subscriptions online, keeping the same seats as last year. Please keep an eye out for an email with renewal instructions. I would also like to remind guests that getting from Diboll to Dixon is easy with our air-conditioned shuttles that run before and after each show!

As we look ahead to the season, I would like to acknowledge Dean Edwards and Beth Wilson for their support; our robust steering committee led by co-chairs Ken Goode and Don Paul Landry; stellar staff, Charlie Farve Hayes, Michael Batt, James Velasquez, Arynne Fannin, and Christian Smith; and the unparalleled talent in New Orleans. See you soon!

THE SUMMER LYRIC ENDOWMENT

BE A PART OF THE LEGACY

In October 2012, Summer Lyric Theatre at Tulane University launched our SLT Endowment Campaign. Now celebrating our 58th season, this Endowment remains pivotal in enabling SLT to uphold its commitment to delivering exceptional musical theatre experiences to the Gulf South region.

What exactly does your contribution support? The Endowment plays a crucial role in covering production costs, including a professional orchestra featuring members of the esteemed Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra, as well as supporting professional performers, directors, and designers. Furthermore, it aids in the maintenance of our cherished historic venue, Dixon Hall. We would greatly appreciate your participation in ensuring our legacy.

A CHORUS LINE

JUNE 19-22

JAUNÉ BUISSON

A Chorus Line follows young people hungry to see their dreams realized. We see their struggles, triumphs, and origin stories. We also observe the challenges of the industry, the performers' hopes hanging on the often blunt and insensitive "God-voice" of the director. While the dancers are in the grind to make it, you already know you are about to hit it big when the gold-clad cast regales you with "One" final show-stopper!

Carousel follows what happens when carny cad becomes a family man in late 19th century New England. In spite of the musical grandeur of this epic show, we will not allow the heavy and raw issues of suicide and domestic violence to be glossed over by such confections as "If I Loved You" and "You'll Never Walk Alone." Though "June is Bustin' Out All Over," you'll have to wait until the tail end of July for the sweeping masterpiece!

Company is not a collection of pretty ditties about how life should be, but how they are. Sondheim stuns with lyrics that are somehow simultaneously a glut of words as well as a perfect economy of the same, unflinchingly showing us the cynicism, fear, pessimism, and ultimately the yearning for connection that are all a part of "Being Alive." Please let this production be one of "The Little Things You Do Together" this summer!
