RLST 1020, Religions of the World

This course is an introduction to the historical origins, teachings, and scriptures of major world religions, including Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Through our examination of these traditions, we will seek to better understand the nature of religious belief, the character of divine law, and the possibilities available to us as rational and spiritual beings.

Attributes: Global Perspectives, Textual & Hist Perspect