

Dale Shuger
dshuger@tulane.edu

Tulane University 7/13-
Assistant Professor
Department of Spanish and Portuguese
Areas of Specialization: early modern Spanish literature, early modern Spanish history, Inquisition and legal history in Spain and colonial Latin America

Tulane University 7/12-7/13
Visiting Assistant Professor
Department of Spanish and Portuguese

Columbia University 2008-2012
Assistant Professor
Department of Spanish and Portuguese

EDUCATION

New York University
Department of Spanish and Portuguese
Ph.D with Distinction, 2008

Harvard University
Department of Romance Languages
B.A summa cum laude, 2001

PUBLICATIONS

Don Quixote in the Archives: Madness in Life and Literature in Early Modern Spain. Edinburgh Critical Studies in Renaissance Culture. Series Editor: Lorna Hutson. April 2012.

“A Curious Relación: Event and Account of the Auto de fe.” Bulletin of Hispanic Studies 90.4 (2013).

“Framing Interiority: Cervantes’ Coloquio de los perros and the Inquisition” Cervantes (Bulletin of the Cervantes Society of America) 30.2. Fall 2011.

“Beyond Allegory: Meanings of Madness in Early Modern Spain” in Diseases of the Imagination. Ed. Yasmin Haskell. Brepols. Dec. 2011.

“Madness on trial.” Journal of Spanish Cultural Studies. 10.3. 2009