

Terry K. Simmons Lecture in Art History

Barbara Mundy

The Death of Tenochtitlan, the life of Mexico City: Transformations of a 16th-Century Capital

Tuesday, Sept. 10
at 6:00 pm

Stone Auditorium (Rm. 210),
Woldenberg Art Center,
Tulane University

Reception to follow

Sponsored by
The Newcomb Art Department
artdept@tulane.edu
Supported by
The Terry K. Simmons Fund

When Spanish armies destroyed the Aztec capital, what became of the indigenous city? Prize-winning author Barbara Mundy of Fordham University takes a new look at the end, and the beginning, of one of the largest cities in the Americas.