TULANE SUMMER IN ROME

WHAT TO EXPECT

The program in Rome has been designed to provide students with an ideal way of exploring their academic interests in an immersive setting. Four courses, on topics from Italian history, archeology, cinema and business, all taught in English, will be meeting five times per week both in the classroom and at celebrated historical and cultural sites around Rome.

WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN US

Tulane Summer in Rome 2020 maintains the high academic standards of the courses taught on the Tulane campus throughout the year, while also offering the opportunity to experience Italy and its culture in an authentic environment. The program will be hosted by IES, one of the largest international study-abroad providers <https://www.iesabroad.org/city/rome>

EXPLORATION POINTS

Tivoli

Town of the ruins of Emperor Hadrian's villa, Tivoli is a nice Renaissance city famous for the luscious garden of Villa D'Este and its scenographic waterfalls, fountains and pools

Pompeii

Frozen in time, Pompeii is renowned as one of the most preserved cities of antiquity due to its layers of mud and ashes that buried the city 'alive' in 79 AD, following the devastating eruption of the vulcano Vesuvius.
