Living on the Streets in Four Global Cities: A Comparative Study of Homelessness in Los Angeles, Paris, Sao Paulo, and Tokyo

Dr. Snow is one of the preeminent scholars in the fields of collective behavior and social movements, urban sociology, socioeconomic inequality and marginality with an emphasis on homelessness and poverty, as well as ethnographic research methods. Dr. Snow has been President of Society for the Study of Symbolic Interaction and the Pacific Sociological Association, and Vice-President Elect of the American Sociological Association. He is also the recipient of the 2008 Society for the Study of Social Problems' Lee Founders Award for career contributions to the study of social problems and the 2013 John D. McCarthy Award for Lifetime Achievement in the Scholarship of Social Movements and Collective Behavior.

This event is sponsored by the Sociology Department, the Office of Academic Affairs' Networking Seminars grant, and the Center for Inter-American Policy & Research (CIPR).
