This class will survey the artistic production of China, Korea, and Japan across a wide scope of historical periods and media.

Objects and ensembles such as ink paintings, tombs, temples, ritual implements, sculptures, porcelain, and lacquer objects will be approached discussing their styles, functions, and audiences.