Brazilian Studies and the Portuguese Language Program present:

O Navio Negreiro, The Slave Ship
A Public Poetry Reading

Brazil had the longest-lasting slave economy in the Americas, importing an estimated TEN TIMES as many African slaves as the U.S.

In recognition of Black History Month, we will celebrate the monumental importance of these four million enslaved men and women with a bilingual reading of the Castro Alves poem O Navio Negreiro (The Slave Ship)

Friday, February 1st
LBC Pederson lobby
2-3:00pm

Co-sponsored by the program in Africana Studies and the Stone Center for Latin American Studies
