

Summer Abroad in Italy

May 31 – June 26, 2020

An Educational Experience Exploring Art, Cultural Development and the Reggio Emilia Approach to Education

Reserve your space. Apply by February 17, 2020!

About the Program

Ferrara, a beautiful city known for its Renaissance palaces and castles, is located in Italy's Emilia-Romagna region, world famous for its cuisine. This summer abroad experience also offers a wealth of culture, community, and content. Students will have the option to choose two (3-credit hour) courses in Education, Art History, and Psychology. These courses focus on the Reggio Emilia Approach to Education, the growth and development of children and adolescents, and art appreciation in Italy.

Contact Dr. Shannon Blady for more information.

sblady@tulane.edu

#SUMMERINITALY

 FERRARA, ITALY

COURSES

(all Tulane students and others are welcome to enroll)

- ARHS 3910: The Art of Renaissance Italy
 - EDUC 6900: Special Topics (OR alternatively ARHS 6900 Special Topics in Museum Studies—Museum Education: An International Perspective)
 - EDLA 3160: Children's & Adolescent Literature
 - EDCU 6860: Special Topics - A look at Reggio Emilia's Approach to Education
 - PSYCH 3210: Child Psychology
 - PSYCH 3390: Adolescent Psychology
- Intro to PSYCH required for both Psych classes